IN MEMORIAM.

After a long illness Elijah R. Gooch, aged 23 years, passed over the river Saturday, Feb. 6, to rest under the shade of the ever-vernal trees, beside the still waters in the land of the redeemed. The dark angel of death has plucked another flower and transplanted it in the Garden of Life and Light above. Weep not mother, father and brothers for God hath given him life eternal and he now walks the gold-paved streets of the New Jerusalem. He was a devout member of the Christian church. Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock Elds. J. G. Livingston and F. M. Tindler preached the funeral sermon at Goshen church, after which all that was mortal of him was laid to rest in the Goshen cemetery. May God throw his everlasting arms around the distressed and help them in their dark hour of trouble.

Faded and gone is our dear one,
Many a tear have we shed,
Dark is the home that was once so bright,
For our dear Elijah is dead.
In the silent city Elijah sleeps to night,
His gentle heart has forgot to beat;
Flushed are the steps of his gentle feet,
His white hands folded o'er pulseless breast,
The busy hands that would know no rest;
Closed are the eyes with their loving light,
Under the starlight Elijah sleeps to night.
In the perfect rest that knows no pain,
No trembling heart nor throbbing brain;
Smoothed is the hair on the calm pure brow,
The silent lips cannot greet you now;
Loving and gentle—tender and true,
Elijah has passed away from mortal view.
The perfect spirit now walks in light,
Under the starlight Elijah sleeps to night.
His work is done, Elijah will come no more
With welcome smiles to the open door,
Not for your aching hearts or tears
Can Elijah come again in the passing years,
For his gentle form with its nameless grace,
The loving heart and the angel face,
Is resting so quiet, so cold and white,
Under the starlight Elijah sleeps to night.

GET ABOARD.

"All aboard for the Bradley special." It is going to be a veritable palace on wheels, with Editor Henry Watterson and his little man Friday, who boasts that he put the rollers under Beckham, as guests of state and honor. As servants to this royal pair will doubtless go Wheeler Campbell, Charlton, McNutt, Lillard and others as deep almost in political shame as they. Poor old Mueller is too sick to go and may never have another chance to betray a constituency. These servants and lackey boys to the royal pair will doubtless leave no want for their masters unsupplied, besides shining their shoes and brushing their hats and clothes. Republicans, like Republicans, will be ungrateful if they fail to take the whole shooting match along and pay their every expense. But for them there would be no Bradley special. They should also be exhibited to the crowned heads at Washington as the greatest and meanest conglomeration of political bolters, sell-outs and traitors ever shown in captivity, and be held up to the scorn of all who believe that even peanut politicians ought to have some little honor at least.

All aboard for the Bradley special, if you want to have the time of your life. King Master Thatcher will see that all the animals are properly cared for. Watch for it; wait for it; don't miss it.—State Journal, Frankfort.

Near Death In Big Pond.

It was a thrilling experience to Mrs. Ida Soper to face death. "For years a severe lung trouble gave me intense suffering," she writes, "and several times nearly caused my death. All remedies failed and doctors said I was incurable. Then Dr. King's New Discovery brought quick relief and a cure so permanent that I have not been troubled in twelve years." Mrs. Soper lives in Big Pond, Pa. It works wonders in Coughs and Colds, Sore Throats, Hemorrhages, La Grippe, Asthma, Croup, Whooping Cough and all Bronchial affections. 50c and $1. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Penny's Drug Store.

At the close of 1908 New York had spent $50,000,000 in constructing subways, and an additional $100,000,000 will be spent to complete the system.

Dan Connors, aged 70, for 42 years a brakeman on the Butler accommodation train, is dead at Falmouth.

PREACHERSVILLE.

At White's Mill the recent flood was over half a mile wide and had the home of Charles Ooten surrounded nearly all day.

A wedding here soon will come as quite a surprise to many. The prospective bride is both handsome and talented.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Cress were in Rockcastle, at the bedside of her mother, Mrs. J. J. Smith, who is quite ill. Mrs. Ona Naylor visited Mrs. George Naylor. D. F. Thompson and wife have moved to Boyle.

Preachersville did not have any mail communication last Wednesday on account of high water. Dix river went on a rampage, rising more than 10 feet in four hours, higher than for 16 years. Lots of hemp, fodder and fencing were swept away. The high water caused John Bell and family to leave home and spend the night with his brother-in-law, John B. Anderson. Not thinking the water would get any higher, Mr. Bell did not move out his household furniture and as a consequence had everything badly damaged.

Religious matters here are on the wane, seemingly. We used to have two Sunday schools, two prayer meetings and services at the M. E. church once per month and at the Baptist church twice per month. Thus we were sure of church services on three Sundays in the month, while the other Sundays were nearly always taken by an itinerant. We nearly always had as many as 11 sermons per month, and sometimes more. In the past year we find that there have been only 40 sermons delivered at the two churches, not a single prayer meeting and practically no Sunday school. We are not as we used to be, a place "preached to death," but our good people are suffering a spiritual famine. Shall our little town be wrapped in wickedness and steeped in iniquity and our eyes closed in sluggard's slumber, while it is gliding down to the broad way? Up and be doing!

CRAB ORCHARD.

Mr. Saunders has opened a splendid line of merchandise in the Latem building.

Rev. Brummett, of Williamsburg, preached at the Baptist church Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Nell Newland, of Cedar Creek, gave a delightful social to her young friends Saturday night.

The deaf and dumb daughter of Geo. Parrish died this week near Ottenheim. She was educated at the Deaf Institute in Danville.

Wheat is looking well and there is lots of it. The farmers of this locality will glut the market this year if all plant tobacco who say they will.

Mrs. S. W. Fife, of Cincinnati, is with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Chadwick. Wallace Gover is assisting Cashier Bailey in the bank while Miss Ophelia Lackey is enjoying a rest.

Mr. Peters sold the Ward Moore property to a man named Cochran for $1,100 and bought the Shonta farm for $3,000. He sold four two-year-old mules to John Cress for $500 and bought of same party a combined mare for $200.

The hotels are doing a thriving business. An old resident remarked to us that "Crab Orchard on Saturdays has the appearance of Market street in our metropolis." Here is the place to locate to get among the best and most hospitable people on earth.

A Religious Author's Statement.

Rev. Joseph H. Fespersion, Salisbury, N. C., who is the author of several books, writes: "For several years I was afflicted with kidney trouble and last winter I was suddenly stricken with a severe pain in my kidneys and was confined to bed eight days unable to get up without assistance. I commenced taking Foley's Kidney Remedy, and the pain gradually abated and finally ceased. I cheerfully recommend Foley's Kidney Remedy." New Stanford Drug Co.

"Sir, could you give me a little assistance?" said the weary wayfarer. "I don't know where my next meal is coming from."

"Neither do I," replied the prosperous-looking individual. "My cook left this morning, too."—Philadelphia Record.

Don't drug the Stomach, or stimulate the Heart or Kidneys. That is wrong. It is the weak nerves that are crying out for help. Vitalize those weak inside controlling nerves with Dr. Shoop's Restorative, and see how quickly good health will come to you again. Test it and see! Sold by Penny's Drug Store.

By a vote of 47 to 35 the Senate refused to put a statehood rider on the House resolution looking to the prevention of discrimination against American Jews traveling in Russia.

"Lucky" Baldwin's estate is worth $30,000,000 according to a statement by his manager, A. H. Unruh. This is the largest estate ever probated in Southern California.

All the members of the Roosevelt Cabinet Wednesday submitted their resignations to the president to take effect at noon yesterday. This is in accordance with the custom at the end of an administration.

In the district court at Guthrie, Okla., Judge Strang decided that the writ of search and seizure in the MacReynolds-Haskell case was issued without sufficient fact and ordered the papers returned to MacReynolds.

The $5,000 libel suit of Judge Dixon against H. C. Chappell, editor of the Thousandsticks, was dismissed in the Leslie Circuit Court on demurrer. The opinion of the court was that the words used in the article were not actionable. After deliberating more than 60 hours the jury in the case of Councilmen Klein, Wasson and Brand, of Pittsburg, returned a verdict finding them guilty of graft. W. W. Ramsey, the former banker, was found not guilty on instructions from the court.

HUSTONVILLE.

Remember the date of what is to be the biggest fair ever held here—the week following Stanford.

At the home of the bride's parents, one mile south of Hustonville, on Feb. 25, Wm. H. Reynolds was married to Miss Georgia Cravens. Rev. W. S. Willis officiated.

J. H. Reid was detained at home this week on account of the serious illness of his wife. Mrs. G. Spears, who has been ill for some time with a complication of diseases, is better.

McCormack, Myers & Vaughan shipped to Cincinnati a car of hogs bought at 5 to 5½c, one car of butcher cattle at 3 to 3½c James Yowell sold to a local buyer 69 1,050-pound cattle at 5.35c.

The "dry wave" that for months so completely encompassed our State, was swept away by a Jupiter Pluvius tidal wave last week doing much damage in this and Casey counties. Live stock, bridges and fences were easy victims to the highest water marks in 25 years.

Big South Fork in Casey county was higher last week than ever known before. Many families along the valley had to be removed from their homes by their neighbors on the hills. No lives were lost, but swimming and wading were much in vogue along the river bottoms.

Rev. W. H. Jones has been called by the Baptist church here. He has not accepted yet but will preach next Sunday morning and evening. Morning subject: "The Lord's Prayer;" 7 p. m.: "After Death What?" He is an able and attractive speaker and it is hoped he will be engaged.

Our clever fellow townsman, Col. George D. Weatherford, whose heart is in the right place, having bought the drug stock of Wells & Co., Danville, will make that city his future home. Boyd Weatherford, the accomplished prescriptionist, will have charge of the business, which insures its correct and faithful performance. Our loss is Danville's gain. May success attend his efforts.

The Hustonville Literary and Musical Club was organized at the Christian church Friday evening. A. K. McClure was elected temporary chairman and Wm. W. Peavyhouse was made secretary. After the reading of the constitution and by-laws by Rev. W. S. Willis they were approved and 27 names subscribed. The election of permanent officers resulted as follows: W. W. Peavyhouse, president; Owsley Floyd, vice president; King Carpenter, secretary; Denver Neal, treasurer; A. K. McClure, teacher; Editors, Misses Lora Bohon, Melle Hopper, Lucy Alcorn. Ushers, Francis Weatherford, Thomas Bach. All members and persons desiring membership will meet in the Graded School chapel Friday evening, March 5, at 7:15.

In the proper place in The Democrat today will be found the official announcement of the Hon. J. Sam Owsley, Jr., as a candidate for Circuit Judge of this, the Thirteenth Judicial district, subject to the action of the Democratic party. His announcement does not come as a surprise for it has been known for many months that Mr. Owsley would be a candidate for circuit judge, but for reasons best known to himself has refrained from announcing officially until the present time in this county. He was in Harrodsburg yesterday looking after his fences and was a pleasant caller at The Democrat office. He said he was much pleased at the encouragement and assurances of support received here and elsewhere in the district and felt confident of success. Mr. Owsley has served the 13th district twice as Commonwealth's attorney and made an able official, against whom no word of reproach was ever heard. He is at present the efficient and popular county judge of Lincoln. Mr. Owsley is very popular all over the district and is sure to have very strong following. Judge M. C. Saulley is the only other candidate in the race so far.—Harrodsburg Democrat.

MATRIMONIAL.

Dean Smith and Miss Cynthia A. Leach were made one at Rev. J. M. Cook's by that gentleman yesterday.

J. A. Engleman, telegraph operator at Kingsville, and Miss Maude Haggard, the charming young daughter of W. G. Haggard, of that section, were joined heart and hand here Tuesday by Judge J. S. Owsley. They paid this office a call just after the knot had been tied and begun married life right by taking the I. J.

"My three year old boy was badly constipated, had a high fever and was in an awful condition. I gave him two doses of Foley's Orino Laxative and the next morning the fever was gone and he was entirely well. Foley's Orino Laxative saved his life." A. Wolkush, Cashier, Wis. New Stanford Drug Co.

The Galt House at Lawrenceburg burned, entailing a total loss.

SENATOR TELLER, who voluntarily retired yesterday, took his seat in the Senate on the admission of Colorado to the union in 1876, since which time he has been continuously and prominently in the public eye. He resigned from the Senate in 1882 to enter the Cabinet of President Arthur as Secretary of the Interior, re-entering the Senate March 4, 1885. A republican in politics, he withdrew from the Republican National Convention at St. Louis in June, 1896, because of the financial plank adopted by the party, which he has never since approved. He was re-elected as an independent silver republican, and in 1903 was re-elected as a democrat, with which party he has been affiliated since he withdrew from the republican convention. His conspicuous ability as a lawyer and his familiarity with legislation covering a long series of years have given him an eminent place in the Senate.

The debt of New York City is the largest in the country, $785,995,128, equal to $177.74 per capita. Boston, Mass., comes next with $104,306,706, and the per capita is nearly as large, $170.90. Cincinnati's debt is $124.06 per capita, though the total is not as much as other cities. Of the large cities San Francisco has the smallest debt, $3,865,600, which is only $9.66 per head. In 1908 the total assessed valuation of all taxable property, personal and real, in the city of New York, was $7,158,190,400, as against $6,098,185,601 for 10 of the largest cities taken together.

CALEB POWERS was to have been one of the central figures at the inauguration of President Taft yesterday. It is interesting to see how some of the rascals carry on over the head of the conspiracy that sent Gov. Goebel to his grave.

INSTEAD of a county unit law or a State-wide prohibition bill, the Legislature of West Virginia gave the people a high license law, the minimum to be $1,000. This will practically amount to prohibition in the smaller towns.

THIS is going some: Within 48 hours a New York pastor married seven couples, baptized nine children and officiated at three funerals. Stanford's four preachers would want a week to complete the performance in.

WITH 10 counties going dry in a week and Gov. Marshall vetoing the bill permitting Sunday base ball on Sunday, looks to us like the Hoosier State is on the mend.

INDIANA has passed a stringent cigarette law. Now let the Hoosiers enforce it and the State will be saved many a dwarf and pigmy.

WE salute you, President Taft, and ask that you give us the very best you have in your shop.

TEDDY is now an ex. The Doxology is in order.

By a vote of 26 to 23 the Indiana Senate killed the Proctor-Tomlinson bill for the repeal of the county option law by striking out the enacting clause. The death of the bill sounds a victory for temperance advocates. The fight on the measure has engaged the Indiana Legislature during its entire session. The House passed the new Sunday baseball bill after a heated Biblical debate.

THE Somerset Journal, growing better all the time, celebrated its 10th birthday last issue. May it live to be a centenarian.

THE Negro, Crum, has resigned as collector of the port at Charleston, S. C. Wonder what Taft promised him?

POLITICAL.

The Missouri House passed the county option bill by a vote of 75 to 46.

The lower house of the Arkansas Legislature passed the Gann State-wide prohibition bill by a vote of 53 to 27. Myron T. Herrick, of Ohio, for business reasons has declined an ambassadorship at the hands of President Taft.

The Appalachian bill was passed by the House by a close vote and a Forest Reserve Commission was thereby created.

Representative Overstreet, of Indiana, has declined the office of Second Assistant Postmaster General, which he was offered by Judge Taft.

The sundry civil bill appropriating $139,000,000, and the military academy bill carrying an appropriation of $2,541,000 were passed by the Senate.

The democrats in the Wisconsin Legislature broke a quorum in order to prevent the possible election of Senator Stephenson on the 20th joint ballot of the session.

The "credentials" of Senator Stephenson, of Wisconsin, were laid before the Senate by Senator Nelson, of Minnesota, and were ordered to be printed and to lie on the table.

The House by a vote of 172 to 175 rejected the ship subsidy bill. The vote was taken after an extended and acrimonious debate which brought out one of the largest crowds of the session.

The House, by an overwhelming vote, under suspension of the rules, passed the bill amending the copyright laws, designed, among other things, to prevent using musical composition in instruments without consent of their authors.

A $50,000 monument in memory of President James A. Garfield is proposed in a bill introduced by Representative Langley, of Kentucky. The measure provides that the monument shall be erected on or near the Middle Creek battlefield in Floyd county, Kentucky.

A resolution designed as a concession to the so-called insurgents amending the rules so as to provide one day each week for a call of committees gave rise to immediate discussion in the House of Representatives and adopted by the narrow margin of six, the vote standing 168 to 162.

Seven members of the Senate Committee on Judiciary signed the report declaring that President Roosevelt, without any authority of law, sanctioned the absorption of the Tennessee Coal and Iron Company by the United States Steel Corporation and that the merger was in violation of the Sherman anti-trust law.

The democratic filibuster in the Senate against the penal code bill was drawn to a close Wednesday by an agreement eliminating from the measure the objectionable features authorizing the use of troops at election places, and the measure was passed without actually changing the law now on the statute books.

Senator Isaac Stephenson contributed $1,000 to the presidential campaign of Senator Robert M. La Follette and another $1,000 to pay the expenses of the Wisconsin delegates to the Republican National Convention in Chicago. The information was gained from the testimony of Mary F. Stringham, private secretary to Senator Stephenson, in her examination by the Wisconsin Legislative Committee, which is delving into the details of the expenditures by the various Senatorial primary candidates.

Cough Caution

Never, positively never poison your lungs. If you cough—even from a simple cold—only you should always heal, soothe, and ease the irritated bronchial tubes. Don't blindly suppress it with a stupefying poison. It's strange how some things finally come about. For twenty years Dr. Shoop has constantly warned people not to take cough mixtures or prescriptions containing Opium, Chloroform, or similar poisons. And now a little late though—Congress says "Put it on the label, if poison is in your Cough Mixture." Good Very good! Hereafter for this very reason mothers, and others, should insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. No poison marks on Dr. Shoop's labels—and none in the medicine, else it must by law be on the label. And it's not only safe, but it is said to be by those that know it best, a truly remarkable cough remedy. Take no chance there, particularly with your children. Insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Compare carefully the Dr. Shoop package with others and note the difference. No poison marks there! You can always be on the safe side by demanding

Now that the court-house bell is gone, how are we going to get out the fire ladders, should such a thing be necessary? We move that Mayor Florence and Chief of Police Carter each ring a cow bell.

BIG FARMERS.—Granville Welch Cecil and Henry Sallee, recently of Boyle, will be extensive Canada farmers. They recently bought of Durham & Cecil, of Danville, a 32-horse plow, which will be pulled by an immense engine, and which cost them $5,000. The freight and duty on it from Danville to Canada was $1,350.

THE county judge and circuit clerk will be found for the present in the New Odd Fellow's Building; a room is being built next to the vault for County Clerk G. B. NOTES and accounts collected anywhere in the United States, and no charges unless we collect. May's Collection Agency, Somerset, Ky.

SQUIRE JAMES A. DUDDEMAN, who made a most creditable race for assessor, but went down in defeat, says there are no scores on him and that he is for the ticket from start to finish.

REV. K. D. NOAKES has been appointed magistrate of the Crab Orchard magisterial district to succeed Squire J. T. Roberts, who moved to the Hustonville section recently. His commission came last week but he did not qualify until Wednesday. Rev. Noakes is the first republican to hold office in the good county of Lincoln in years.

AT a meeting of the stockholders of the Crab Orchard Fair & Racing Association held Monday, the association went into voluntary liquidation and a committee composed of R. H. Bronaugh, J. C. Bailey and J. H. Collier was appointed to wind up the affairs of the association. A new organization will be formed later when definite plans will be made for the holding of a fair.

THE fiscal court gave Mr. J. R. Powell the superintendency of the building of the new court-house and the people may expect the work well looked after. Mr. Powell is a genius in the Carpenter line and is well acquainted with masonry. He is not afraid of work and is a hustler with a big "H." The taxpayers' money will not be squandered as long as Mr. P. has the looking after affairs.

DR. J. B. BECK has sold his splendid farm, the John D. Carpenter place of 208½ acres, near Hustonville, to Messrs. James N. Cash and J. Randolph Harris, of this place, at $9250. Dr. Beck bought the farm about two years ago at $80. Mr. Harris will take charge after Dr. Beck's sale on March 20. The doctor is undecided on his location but we hope and believe he will remain in Lincoln.

YOU'LL ENJOY MONTE CRISTO.—Millions have followed the fortunes of Edmond Dantes until he startled the world as "Monte Cristo," but the interest of all who have seen the play is hardly less keen than those who have not. It is hard for a play-goer to imagine the effect of the revelation of "Monte Cristo" upon persons in the audience who have never seen it. If there be any such in this community, they will have a chance to see the play at Walton's Opera House Wednesday night, March 17, when Fred G. Conrad's widely-known production of the version arranged by Eugene Moore will be presented. Mr. Moore, who is one of the best Edmond Dantes living, prepared his adaption with great care to introduce all the best of the story, that would be practical and effective on the stage. The company is receiving excellent notices.

CLOTHES French cleaned. Cook & Farmer.

FRESH buttermilk and cream daily at Rinehart's. 4t.

FOR SALE.—A lot of roller skates. Apply at this office.

FOR pure garden seeds and field seeds call on T. D. Newland, Stanford.

THE work of tearing down the court-house is progressing reasonably well.

SEE our roofing for tobacco barns—the best. W. K. Warner, the tinner.

It is now time for your Spring sewing. Call on Mrs. J. H. Colyer, Logan Avenue.

I WILL have a lot of eggs court day from pure White Chinese geese at W. H. Higgins' store. Let me book your order. $1 for six. J. Thomas Hackley, Jr.

HUGH THOMPSON was indicted by the Casey grand jury for killing his nephew, Fred Garrison, and the trial is set for to-day. Judge M. C. Saufley, who will defend Mr. Thompson, went to Liberty yesterday to be ready for the trial.

MR. O. PERRY HUFFMAN has bought back the butcher shop he sold to Mr. J. L. Meeks a month or so ago and will move it to the room on Somerset street just vacated by Lutes & Wilkinson. He asks a share of the public patronage, promising at all times the tenderest and best meats purchasable.

ENTRIES to the great horse sale to be held at Hustonville March 24 and 25 by the Hustonville Combination Sale Co. are coming in rapidly and some of the best horses and jacks in the State are being entered. It is likely that the entry list will be so great that it will take three days to make the sale. Catalogues will be out in a week or two.
